

BRAINED

Meaning: 'Brained' refers to being mentally overwhelmed or exhausted due to cognitive strain or difficulty.

1. She was completely brained by the difficult math problem.
2. After the intense debate, he felt mentally brained and needed a break.
3. The sudden news left her feeling brained and overwhelmed.
4. He brained his opponent with a clever argument during the discussion.
5. The complex novel left me feeling brained after just a few chapters.
6. She brained herself with too many tasks on her to-do list.
7. The intricate puzzle nearly brained him as he tried to solve it.
8. With all the studying, he felt brained and ready for a nap.
9. The relentless questions from the audience brained the speaker.
10. After hours of brainstorming, her creativity felt completely brained.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brained>