

BRANCHER

Meaning: Brancher: a young bird that has developed enough to leave the nest and practice flying by flapping its wings on nearby branches.

1. The brancher is often seen flapping its wings as it prepares to take flight.
2. Young birds become branchers before they fully leave the nest.
3. The brancher perched on a nearby limb, surveying its surroundings.
4. Watching the brancher navigate from twig to twig was a delightful sight.
5. As a brancher, the fledgling showed signs of independence and curiosity.
6. The brancher practiced its landing skills on the lower branches of the tree.
7. Birdwatchers eagerly awaited the moment the brancher would take its first flight.
8. The mother bird continued to feed her brancher until it gained more confidence.
9. In the spring, many species of birds have their young branchers exploring nearby trees.
10. The brancher's vibrant feathers shone brightly in the sunlight.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brancher>