

BRANDISHER

Meaning: A brandisher is a person who wields or displays a weapon or quality, often with a sense of bravado or authority.

1. The brandisher of the sword stood defiantly at the front lines.
2. Her reputation as a brandisher of justice made her a beloved figure in the community.
3. In the heat of the argument, he became a brandisher of harsh words rather than reason.
4. The brandisher of the flag rallied the supporters with passionate speeches.
5. As a skilled brandisher of her art, she captivated audiences with her performances.
6. The brandisher of the idea faced skepticism but ultimately persuaded the crowd.
7. He saw himself as a brandisher of hope in a world filled with despair.
8. The brandisher of the truth faced opposition but stood firm in their beliefs.
9. With a flourish, the brandisher of the wand cast a spell that amazed everyone.
10. The brandisher of the ancient relic spoke of its mysterious origins to the eager audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brandisher>