

BRAY

Meaning: BRAY (verb): To make a loud, harsh cry characteristic of donkeys or mules.

1. The donkey began to bray loudly, announcing its presence to the farm.
2. As the sun set, the distant bray of a mule echoed through the valley.
3. She found the sound of the bray both amusing and endearing.
4. In the quiet night, a sudden bray startled the campers around the fire.
5. The bray of the donkey was a familiar sound in the rural landscape.
6. He imitated the bray perfectly, making everyone laugh at his antics.
7. The farmer was used to the bray of his animals at dawn.
8. With a hearty bray, the donkey trotted over to greet its owner.
9. The bray filled the air as the animals were led back to their pen.
10. It was hard to focus on the lecture with the constant bray in the background.
11. The donkey began to bray loudly as it noticed the approaching travelers.
12. In the stillness of the night, the bray of the distant mule echoed across the valley.
13. She laughed when she heard the bray of the stubborn donkey refusing to move.
14. The farmer could always tell when the animals were hungry by their persistent bray.
15. As the sun set, the bray of the donkey signaled the end of the workday.
16. He imitated the bray of a donkey for the amusement of his friends.
17. The sudden bray startled the children playing in the field.
18. With each bray, the donkey made its displeasure known to anyone nearby.
19. The sound of a bray can often be mistaken for a laugh in the quiet countryside.
20. The bray of the donkey was a familiar sound that filled the air at dawn.
21. The donkey began to bray loudly as it spotted its owner approaching.
22. In the quiet of the countryside, the bray of a distant donkey echoed through the fields.
23. When the sun set, the bray of the mule signaled the end of a long day of work.

24. Children laughed as they imitated the bray of the playful donkey at the petting zoo.
25. She could hear the bray of the donkey even from her cabin in the woods.
26. The unexpected bray startled the hikers as they walked through the narrow path.
27. As the festival began, the bray of the donkey added a cheerful ambiance to the celebration.
28. He was known for his ability to mimic the bray of various animals quite accurately.
29. The farmer was pleased to hear the bray, knowing it meant his donkey was healthy and happy.
30. During the parade, the loud bray of the donkey drew attention from the crowd.
31. The donkey began to bray loudly, signaling its presence to the others.
32. As the sun set, the bray of the nearby mule echoed across the valley.
33. She laughed at the sound of the bray, which reminded her of summer days on the farm.
34. In the distance, the bray of a donkey could be heard over the quiet landscape.
35. The child's laughter mixed with the bray of the donkey as they played in the field.
36. He could identify the bray of his favorite donkey among all the others.
37. The sudden bray startled the hikers, causing them to pause in their tracks.
38. After a long day, the tired farmer enjoyed the gentle bray of his animals at dusk.
39. The bray resonated through the barn, announcing that feeding time had arrived.
40. Despite its rough sound, the bray of the donkey was oddly comforting in the stillness of night.
41. The donkey began to bray loudly as we approached the stable.
42. I could hear the distant bray of a mule echoing across the valley.
43. Her laughter was so infectious that it sounded like a joyful bray.
44. The farmer tried to quiet the bray of the stubborn animal.
45. During the festival, the bray of the donkey added to the festive atmosphere.
46. The child's impression of a bray brought smiles to everyone in the room.
47. His voice had a strange bray that made it hard to take him seriously.
48. As the sun set, the bray of the livestock filled the air with a rustic charm.
49. The bray of the donkey was a familiar sound in the countryside.

50. She imitated the bray so well that we thought a donkey had wandered in.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bray>