

BRAYER

Meaning: Brayer: a term referring to a donkey or the characteristic sound made by a donkey, often used to indicate its presence.

1. The brayer in the field was a constant reminder of the donkey's presence.
2. As the sun set, the distant sound of a brayer echoed through the valley.
3. The stubborn brayer refused to move, much to the farmer's frustration.
4. In the quiet of the evening, the brayer's calls were a soothing backdrop.
5. She laughed at the brayer, charmed by its persistent antics.
6. The brayer's loud cries could be heard even from the other side of the farm.
7. He trained the young brayer to respond to simple commands.
8. The artist captured the essence of the brayer in her latest painting.
9. With a brayer by her side, she felt a unique connection to the countryside.
10. The brayer's distinctive sound was a signal of impending rain.
11. The distant brayer of the donkey echoed across the quiet valley.
12. She had a unique talent for mimicking the brayer of a mule, much to everyone's amusement.
13. In the early morning, the brayer of the farm animals signaled the start of a new day.
14. The children laughed as the brayer of the stubborn donkey interrupted their picnic.
15. His loud brayer could be heard long before the donkey appeared around the corner.
16. The brayer of the donkey was a familiar sound that reminded her of her childhood.
17. As the sun set, the brayer from the barnyard created a nostalgic symphony of country life.
18. They heard the brayer of the donkey before they even reached the farm.
19. In folklore, the brayer of the donkey often signified the arrival of good fortune.
20. Despite the brayer being annoying at times, it was a comforting sound in the rural landscape.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brayer>