

BREADLESS

Meaning: BREADLESS: lacking bread or food, often resulting in hunger or disappointment.

1. The picnic was a disaster, leaving us breadless under the hot sun.
2. After the bakery ran out of rolls, we were left breadless and disappointed.
3. She stared at her plate, breadless, as everyone else enjoyed their sandwiches.
4. Feeling breadless at dinner, he resolved to make a hearty soup instead.
5. The breadless meal was surprisingly filling, thanks to the generous sides.
6. In a world of endless options, he still found himself breadless at lunch.
7. The children's party featured lots of snacks, but they were sadly breadless.
8. During the diet, he experienced many breadless days, missing the comfort of loaves.
9. Her unique breadless pizza was a hit with the gluten-sensitive guests.
10. A breadless diet can be challenging, but it opens up new culinary possibilities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/breadless>