

BREAK

Meaning: Break: to take a pause from an activity or to cause something to separate into pieces.

1. I need to take a break from my hectic work schedule.
2. The vase fell off the shelf and broke into pieces.
3. She decided to break the news to him gently.
4. They planned to break for lunch at noon.
5. The athlete suffered a break in his training routine due to an injury.
6. He wanted to break the record for the fastest marathon time.
7. After years of hard work, she finally took a break to travel.
8. The storm caused a break in the power lines, leaving us without electricity.
9. He tried to break free from his old habits.
10. The film's plot took a surprising break when the main character revealed a secret.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/break>