

BREAKAWAY

Meaning: Breakaway: a sudden and decisive movement away from a group or established position, often to achieve independence or to gain an advantage.

1. The athlete made a spectacular breakaway from the pack during the final lap of the race.
2. After months of tension, the group decided to have a breakaway meeting to discuss their differences.
3. Her breakaway success in the art world surprised everyone who had underestimated her talent.
4. The breakaway faction within the party caused significant political unrest.
5. During the hike, we took a breakaway path that led us to a hidden waterfall.
6. The breakaway region sought independence from the central government through a referendum.
7. His breakaway album featured a completely different style compared to his previous work.
8. The children enjoyed a breakaway from their usual routine during the summer camp.
9. In the last few minutes of the game, he executed a brilliant breakaway that led to the winning goal.
10. The documentary focused on the breakaway movements that shaped the history of civil rights.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/breakaway>