

BREASTPIN

Meaning: Breastpin: a decorative pin worn on the breast, often used to fasten clothing or as a piece of jewelry.

1. She fastened her elegant dress with a vintage breastpin adorned with intricate jewels.
2. The collector proudly displayed his antique breastpin as one of his most prized possessions.
3. At the gala, many guests complimented her on the exquisite breastpin that held her shawl in place.
4. He rummaged through the old box, hoping to find the breastpin his grandmother used to wear.
5. The delicate breastpin shimmered under the soft candlelight, catching everyone's attention.
6. She carefully attached the breastpin to her outfit, adding a touch of sophistication to her look.
7. During the fashion show, the designer showcased a stunning dress, complete with a matching breastpin.
8. The breastpin, a family heirloom, had been passed down through generations, each with their own story.
9. As she prepared for the ceremony, she chose a breastpin that symbolized her commitment to her cause.
10. The artist used the breastpin as inspiration for her latest painting, capturing its elegance and history.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/breastpin>