

BREASTROPE

Meaning: Breastrope: a strong rope used to secure a ship to a dock or to maintain stability during maritime operations.

1. The sailor carefully adjusted the breastrope to secure the ship against the dock.
2. A strong breastrope is essential for maintaining stability during rough seas.
3. She tied the breastrope with a sturdy knot to ensure it wouldn't slip.
4. The crew inspected the breastrope for wear and tear before setting sail.
5. He learned to tie the breastrope from his father, a seasoned mariner.
6. The breastrope helped keep the boat steady while they unloaded the cargo.
7. During the storm, the breastrope proved its worth by preventing the vessel from drifting.
8. They replaced the worn breastrope with a new one made of durable synthetic material.
9. The captain emphasized the importance of the breastrope for safe anchoring.
10. With the breastrope secured, they could finally relax and enjoy the sunset.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/breastrope>