

BREASTWORK

Meaning: Breastwork refers to a defensive structure, typically a low wall or parapet, built to provide protection for soldiers from enemy fire.

1. The soldiers reinforced the breastwork to withstand the enemy's advance.
2. She admired the intricate designs carved into the old breastwork at the fort.
3. The engineers constructed a new breastwork to protect the vulnerable flank of the camp.
4. During the battle, the breastwork provided crucial cover for the defending troops.
5. As we walked along the historic site, the remnants of the breastwork were still visible.
6. The commander ordered the men to hasten the building of the breastwork before nightfall.
7. Strategic placement of the breastwork ensured that they had the upper hand in the skirmish.
8. The old fort's breastwork stood as a testament to the military architecture of its time.
9. He explained how the breastwork was an essential part of the defensive strategy in that era.
10. The wooden breastwork was quickly erected, but it still needed time to settle before being effective.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/breastwork>