

BRED

Meaning: BRED: the past tense of breed, meaning to produce or raise animals or plants selectively for desired traits or characteristics.

1. She bred a beautiful litter of puppies last spring.
2. The farmers in the valley bred their livestock for better milk production.
3. He was raised in a community that bred creativity and innovation.
4. The scientist bred a new strain of wheat that was resistant to disease.
5. Her passion for horses led her to start a business that bred thoroughbreds.
6. They bred the plants to enhance their growth and yield under harsh conditions.
7. The project aimed to educate young people on how to raise and breed healthy animals.
8. He bred his dogs carefully to ensure they had the best temperaments for therapy work.
9. The rare bird species was successfully bred in captivity for the first time.
10. They bred together different cultures and traditions to create a unique festival.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bred>