

BREED

Meaning: Breed (verb): To produce offspring or cultivate a new variety of plants or animals through selective reproduction.

1. Dogs are known to breed in various environments, adapting to the conditions around them.
2. The farmer decided to breed a new variety of corn that would be more resistant to pests.
3. She was fascinated by the ways in which different species can breed and produce hybrids.
4. The organization aims to breed endangered species in captivity to help increase their populations.
5. It takes careful planning and knowledge to successfully breed livestock for specific traits.
6. Some cats tend to breed seasonally, while others may do so year-round.
7. He chose to breed his champion show dog with another dog from a respected lineage.
8. The researchers wanted to understand how environmental factors influence animals' decisions to breed.
9. Many plants rely on specific pollinators to breed successfully and ensure their survival.
10. It's essential to consider the ethical implications of breeding animals for specific traits.
11. Dogs are known to breed at various times of the year, depending on the species.
12. The farmer decided to breed a new variety of corn that would yield more crops.
13. They chose to breed their champion horse in hopes of producing a winning foal.
14. Some animals breed only once a year, while others can do so multiple times.
15. It's fascinating to learn how different environments can influence the way species breed.
16. To breed fish successfully, it's essential to create an optimal environment for them.
17. The conservation program aims to breed endangered species to increase their populations.
18. Many people choose to breed exotic pets, seeking unique traits in their offspring.
19. She has dedicated her life to studying how animals breed in captivity versus the wild.
20. Understanding the genetics behind breeding can lead to healthier and more resilient animals.
21. Different dog breeds have unique traits that make them suitable for various lifestyles.

22. Farmers often choose to breed animals that exhibit the best characteristics for productivity.
23. The scientist was determined to breed a new variety of plants that could withstand drought.
24. Certain breeds of cats are known for their playful and affectionate nature.
25. To breed championship horses, owners invest significant time and resources into training.
26. Breeding programs in wildlife conservation aim to increase the population of endangered species.
27. It's important to understand the responsibilities involved when deciding to breed pets.
28. The zoo implemented a breeding initiative to help save the rare species from extinction.
29. Cross-breeding can result in hybrid animals with desirable traits from both parent breeds.
30. Passion for a specific breed often drives enthusiasts to participate in dog shows and competitions.

---

*Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/breed>*