BRIBABLE

Meaning: Bribable: capable of being influenced or corrupted through bribery.

1. The investigation revealed that several officials were bribable, undermining public trust.

2. He was known for his integrity and was never considered bribable by his colleagues.

3. In a corrupt system, even the most principled individuals can become bribable under pressure.

4. The company implemented strict policies to ensure that no employee was bribable.

5. Authorities were concerned that the bribable nature of some law enforcement officers could jeopardize cases.

6. Her willingness to accept gifts made her appear more bribable than she actually was.

7. The report highlighted how bribable judges could influence the outcome of trials.

8. In a world where ethics are compromised, few are immune to being bribable.

9. The leaked documents suggested that many politicians were indeed bribable, prompting widespread outrage.

10. Public servants should be held to a standard that makes them entirely non-bribable.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bribable