

BRIBE

Meaning: Bribe (noun): a sum of money or something of value offered to someone to influence their actions or decisions dishonestly.

1. The politician was accused of trying to bribe the officials to secure the contract.
2. She refused to accept the bribe, knowing it would compromise her integrity.
3. In a shocking turn of events, the investigation revealed a massive bribery scandal.
4. He offered a bribe to the customs officer to avoid paying import taxes.
5. Bribing public servants is a crime that undermines the legal system.
6. The detective worked undercover to expose a network of bribery among local businesses.
7. They attempted to bribe the jury in hopes of influencing the trial's outcome.
8. A hefty bribe changed hands during the negotiations for the lucrative deal.
9. The company implemented strict policies to prevent any form of bribery among employees.
10. Witnesses reported seeing the defendant trying to bribe a key witness before the trial.
11. The politician was accused of trying to bribe voters with promises of cash incentives.
12. In a desperate attempt to win the contract, he offered a substantial bribe to the decision-makers.
13. She refused the bribe, insisting that her integrity was more important than any amount of money.
14. The investigation revealed a network of officials who routinely accepted bribes in exchange for favorable treatment.
15. He was shocked to receive a bribe proposal during what he thought was a routine business meeting.
16. Bribing a public official is a serious crime that can result in hefty fines and imprisonment.
17. The undercover agent successfully recorded the bribe being offered to the corrupt city inspector.
18. Many citizens voiced their disapproval of the rampant bribery within the local government.
19. They believed that the only way to secure the deal was to offer a bribe to the company's executives.
20. Fearing for his safety, he reported the bribe attempt to the authorities immediately.

21. The politician was accused of accepting a bribe to secure favorable legislation.
22. She refused to accept a bribe, choosing to uphold her integrity instead.
23. In some countries, bribery is so common that it has become part of the business culture.
24. The investigation revealed that the company had offered a bribe to win the contract.
25. He was arrested for trying to bribe a police officer during a traffic stop.
26. Bribing officials undermines trust in government and public institutions.
27. Despite the risks, he decided to bribe the customs agent to expedite the shipment.
28. The journalist exposed a bribery scandal that rocked the city's administration.
29. Offering a bribe is not only unethical but also illegal in most jurisdictions.
30. The mayor's resignation came after evidence of bribery surfaced in the media.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bribe>