

BRICKFIELDER

Meaning: A brickfielder is a hot, dry wind that blows from the interior of Australia, often carrying dust and causing high temperatures.

1. The brickfielder swept through the town, leaving a layer of dust in its wake.
2. During the summer months, the heat from the brickfielder can be unbearable.
3. The locals often discuss the impact of the brickfielder on their daily lives.
4. A sudden brickfielder caught us off guard during our picnic at the park.
5. Children playing outside had to seek shelter when the brickfielder rolled in.
6. The brickfielder is known for its strong winds that can stir up dust storms.
7. Residents have learned to prepare for the brickfielder each year as it approaches.
8. The sound of the brickfielder howling through the streets was both eerie and fascinating.
9. Farmers often lament the arrival of the brickfielder, fearing it will damage their crops.
10. As evening fell, the brickfielder began to die down, bringing a welcome coolness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brickfielder>