

BRIEF

Meaning: Brief: lasting for a short duration; concise in expression or presentation.

1. The presentation was brief but highly informative.
2. After a brief pause, she continued her speech with renewed energy.
3. He sent her a brief message to confirm their meeting time.
4. The teacher gave a brief overview of the project requirements.
5. During our brief conversation, I learned a lot about her background.
6. She made a brief appearance at the party before leaving early.
7. I only need a brief summary of the report for the meeting.
8. They shared a brief moment of silence in honor of the fallen.
9. His brief explanation clarified the confusion surrounding the topic.
10. The article provided a brief insight into the latest scientific discoveries.
11. The meeting was brief, lasting only thirty minutes.
12. She gave a brief overview of the project before diving into the details.
13. His explanation was brief but packed with useful information.
14. I received a brief message from her about the change in plans.
15. They enjoyed a brief moment of silence to reflect on their memories.
16. The artist's career was brief, yet it left a lasting impact on the community.
17. After a brief discussion, they reached a consensus on the issue.
18. The weather forecast was brief, only highlighting the major changes ahead.
19. She took a brief pause to gather her thoughts before answering.
20. His stay in the city was brief, but he made the most of it.
21. The presentation was brief but packed with useful information.
22. She gave a brief overview of the project in her opening remarks.
23. Please keep your comments brief so everyone has a chance to speak.

24. His visit was brief, lasting only a few minutes before he had to leave.
25. The brief pause in conversation made everyone feel a bit awkward.
26. In the brief moment of silence, they exchanged knowing glances.
27. I received a brief email from my colleague regarding the meeting.
28. Her explanation was brief yet comprehensive, covering all key points.
29. The film was brief, but it left a lasting impression on the audience.
30. The teacher gave a brief overview of the lesson at the start of class.
31. She wrote a brief note to explain her absence.
32. During the meeting, he delivered a brief presentation that captured everyone's attention.
33. The weather report was brief but informative, summarizing the week ahead.
34. After a brief pause, she continued with her story, captivating her audience.
35. He prefers a brief phone call rather than a lengthy conversation.
36. The article offered a brief insight into the history of the city.
37. They enjoyed a brief encounter that left a lasting impression on both of them.
38. The movie was a brief but powerful exploration of human emotions.
39. In a brief statement, the company announced its new product launch.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brief>