

BRIGAND

Meaning: Brigand: a bandit or robber, especially one who engages in plundering or acts of theft in a group.

1. The brigand lurked in the shadows, waiting for unsuspecting travelers to pass by.
2. Local legends spoke of a notorious brigand who had terrorized the region for years.
3. After a daring pursuit, the sheriff finally apprehended the brigand and brought him to justice.
4. The brigand's reputation for ruthlessness made villagers fearful to venture out at night.
5. In the heart of the forest, a hidden camp served as refuge for the brigand and his gang.
6. She had always dreamed of being a hero, but fate led her to become an accidental brigand.
7. The tales of the brigand's exploits spread far and wide, captivating the imagination of many.
8. Despite his criminal past, the brigand showed unexpected kindness to those in need.
9. The old map revealed the secret hideout of an infamous brigand from centuries ago.
10. With cunning strategies, the brigand eluded capture time and again, becoming a legend.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brigand>