

BRIGANDINE

Meaning: Brigandine is a type of body armor made of leather or fabric, reinforced with metal plates, worn by soldiers or knights in battle.

1. The knight donned his brigandine before heading into battle.
2. Historically, brigandines were often made from leather and reinforced with metal plates.
3. She admired the intricate designs on the brigandine worn by the reenactor.
4. The museum displayed a rare collection of brigandines from the medieval period.
5. In the dim light of the armory, the brigandine glimmered with an antique sheen.
6. Brigandines provided excellent protection while allowing for greater mobility than full armor.
7. He chose to wear a brigandine for its combination of comfort and defense.
8. The blacksmith specialized in crafting custom brigandines for local warriors.
9. During the festival, participants showcased their authentic brigandines alongside other armor types.
10. The old manuscript detailed the construction techniques used for making brigandines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brigandine>