

BRILL

Meaning: Brill (adjective): excellent or outstanding; extremely good.

1. The view from the top of the hill was absolutely brill.
2. She had a brill idea for the upcoming project that impressed everyone.
3. After a long week, we decided to have a brill night out with friends.
4. The food at that new restaurant was brill, and I can't wait to go back.
5. He played brilliantly in the game, showcasing his brill skills.
6. The concert last night was brill; I haven't enjoyed myself so much in ages.
7. Her enthusiasm for the project was contagious and made the whole team feel brill.
8. That movie was brill; I couldn't stop laughing from start to finish.
9. He wore a brill smile that lit up the entire room.
10. Finding that rare book at the market was a brill surprise.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brill>