

BRISKNESS

Meaning: Briskness refers to the quality of being quick, energetic, and invigorating, often associated with a refreshing or efficient atmosphere.

1. The briskness of the morning air invigorated her as she stepped outside.
2. He appreciated the briskness with which the meeting was conducted, allowing for efficiency.
3. The briskness of the autumn wind sent leaves swirling around their feet.
4. There was a certain briskness in her tone that made it clear she meant business.
5. The briskness of the café atmosphere energized everyone inside during the busy lunch hour.
6. With the briskness of a seasoned runner, he finished the race far ahead of his competitors.
7. The briskness of the conversation kept everyone engaged and on their toes.
8. She admired the briskness in his walk, reflecting his determination to succeed.
9. As the sun rose, the briskness of the day promised a perfect opportunity for a hike.
10. The briskness in her voice suggested that she had little patience for delays.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/briskness>