

BROCHURE

Meaning: A brochure is a small booklet or pamphlet that provides information and promotional material about a product, service, or destination.

1. The travel agency handed out a colorful brochure filled with exotic destinations.
2. She carefully reviewed the brochure to find the best deals for her vacation.
3. The new restaurant designed an elegant brochure to showcase their menu and ambiance.
4. He picked up a brochure at the conference that highlighted the latest tech innovations.
5. The school distributed a brochure to inform parents about upcoming events and programs.
6. A well-designed brochure can significantly impact a company's marketing strategy.
7. During the tour, the guide provided a brochure that detailed the history of the site.
8. The hotel's brochure featured stunning photographs of its luxurious accommodations.
9. Before making a decision, she requested a brochure to compare the different packages offered.
10. The nonprofit organization created a brochure to raise awareness about their mission and projects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brochure>