

BROILING

Meaning: Broiling refers to cooking food with direct, intense heat from above, often associated with extreme temperatures or conditions.

1. The broiling sun made the afternoon heat almost unbearable.
2. She preferred broiling her vegetables to steaming them for maximum flavor.
3. The steak was perfect, having been broiled to a beautiful medium-rare.
4. After broiling the fish, he squeezed fresh lemon juice over it for added zest.
5. Broiling is a quick cooking method that can enhance the taste of meats.
6. On hot summer days, she enjoyed broiling burgers in the backyard.
7. The chef demonstrated the technique of broiling for the eager cooking class.
8. He set the oven to broil, preparing to finish off the casserole with a crisp topping.
9. Broiling can create a delicious caramelization on the surface of many foods.
10. The smell of broiling garlic and herbs filled the kitchen with an inviting aroma.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/broiling>