

BROKEN-WINDED

Meaning: Broken-winded refers to being out of breath or fatigued, typically after strenuous physical activity.

1. The athlete felt broken-winded after sprinting the final lap of the race.
2. After the long hike, I was completely broken-winded and needed to sit down.
3. He tried to keep pace with the group but soon found himself broken-winded.
4. The broken-winded horse struggled to catch its breath after the strenuous ride.
5. She was broken-winded from laughing so hard during the comedy show.
6. By the end of the workout, I was utterly broken-winded and drenched in sweat.
7. Even the seasoned climber was broken-winded after the steep ascent.
8. Her broken-winded state made it clear that she had pushed herself too hard.
9. The kids returned from their game, broken-winded and filled with excitement.
10. It was a challenging hike, leaving many in the group feeling broken-winded.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/broken-winded>