

BROWNSTONE

Meaning: Brownstone: a type of residential building made of brown sandstone, often characterized by its distinctive architectural style, commonly found in urban areas like Brooklyn.

1. The historic district is known for its beautiful brownstone buildings.
2. She dreamed of owning a charming brownstone in Brooklyn.
3. The brownstone's intricate facade features stunning architectural details.
4. They renovated their brownstone to create a modern living space while preserving its character.
5. Walking through the neighborhood, I admired the elegant brownstone homes lining the street.
6. His family has lived in that brownstone for generations, making it a beloved family heirloom.
7. Brownstone apartments often have high ceilings and large windows that let in plenty of light.
8. The real estate market for brownstones has seen a significant increase in recent years.
9. A brownstone with a private garden is a rare find in the city.
10. Visitors often take photos in front of the iconic brownstone buildings during their trip.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brownstone>