

BRUISER

Meaning: Bruiser: a person, especially a fighter or athlete, characterized by a strong, tough, and aggressive demeanor.

1. The boxer was known as a real bruiser, dominating his opponents in the ring.
2. Despite his intimidating size, he had a gentle heart beneath his bruiser persona.
3. The football team gained a reputation for being a group of bruisers, never shying away from tough tackles.
4. He played the role of the bruiser in the movie, bringing an intense energy to every scene.
5. At the bar, he was the bruiser who could handle any trouble that came his way.
6. Her brother was a bruiser on the rugby field, feared for his strength and aggression.
7. The bruiser of a dog barked fiercely, guarding his territory with unwavering confidence.
8. In street fights, he was known as the bruiser, always the last one standing.
9. Although he looked like a bruiser, he often surprised people with his artistic talents.
10. The bruiser's reputation made him both respected and feared in the neighborhood.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bruiser>