

BRUSHWOOD

Meaning: Brushwood refers to a dense thicket of small branches and twigs, often used for fuel or as natural cover.

1. The campsite was surrounded by dense brushwood, providing a natural barrier from the wind.
2. As the storm approached, we gathered dry brushwood to fuel the fire for warmth.
3. The hikers carefully navigated through the thick brushwood, keeping an eye out for wildlife.
4. In the autumn, the brushwood glowed with vibrant colors, adding beauty to the landscape.
5. The old fence was covered in brushwood, making it nearly invisible from a distance.
6. Wildflowers peeked through the tangled brushwood, creating a striking contrast in the meadow.
7. He cleared the brushwood to make space for the new garden he planned to cultivate.
8. The sound of rustling brushwood caught her attention as a deer emerged from the thicket.
9. After the wildfire, the area was left barren, with only scattered brushwood remaining.
10. The artist captured the scene beautifully, depicting the brushwood swaying gently in the breeze.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brushwood>