

BRUSTLE

Meaning: 'Brustle' means to make a rustling or bustling sound, often associated with movement or activity in a lively or energetic manner.

1. The leaves began to brustle in the gentle breeze of the early morning.
2. As the crowds gathered, the atmosphere started to brustle with excitement.
3. She could hear the brustle of the animals in the underbrush as she hiked through the forest.
4. The children's laughter made the air brustle with joy during the picnic.
5. He felt a brustle of energy as the concert was about to start.
6. In the quiet library, the sudden brustle of pages being turned interrupted the silence.
7. The market was alive with the brustle of vendors calling out to passersby.
8. With each passing moment, the tension in the room began to brustle palpably.
9. The wind caused the curtain to brustle, casting playful shadows on the wall.
10. Amidst the brustle of city life, she found solace in her favorite café.
11. The leaves began to brustle in the gentle wind, creating a soothing sound.
12. She could hear the brustle of the animals moving through the underbrush at dusk.
13. As the crowd gathered, the excitement caused a noticeable brustle among the attendees.
14. The brustle of papers filled the air as he searched for the important document.
15. In the quiet of the night, the sudden brustle outside startled her awake.
16. The brustle of the nearby stream added a serene background to their picnic.
17. With every step on the gravel path, there was a satisfying brustle underfoot.
18. The children's laughter was accompanied by a brustle of energy as they played outside.
19. He felt a brustle of anticipation as the concert was about to begin.
20. The brustle of fabric signaled that the fashion show was ready to commence.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brustle>