BRUTALIZE

Meaning: To brutalize means to subject someone to extreme violence or cruelty, often with the intent to dehumanize or instill fear.

1. The harsh conditions of the prison seemed designed to brutalize the inmates.

2. Witnesses reported that the soldiers brutally brutalized the captured rebels.

3. In an effort to control the population, the regime chose to brutalize dissenters through violence.

4. The documentary highlighted how war can brutalize even the most peaceful individuals.

5. He was shocked to learn how the system could brutalize vulnerable children in its care.

6. The brutalization of the local community led to widespread protests and calls for justice.

7. Survivors spoke out against the ways their captors sought to brutalize their spirits.

8. The relentless bullying at school can brutalize the confidence of even the strongest students.

9. Historical accounts often reveal how conquest and colonization brutalized indigenous populations.

10. Art can serve as a powerful medium to express the brutalization experienced during conflicts.

11. Witnesses reported that the soldiers would often brutalize civilians during the conflict.

12. The documentary aimed to shed light on how violence can brutalize individuals and communities alike.

13. His experiences in the war had begun to brutalize his once compassionate nature.

14. It is a tragic reality that some systems of power can brutalize the most vulnerable among us.

15. The relentless bullying at school served only to brutalize the young victim further.

16. In an attempt to shock the audience, the film did not shy away from depicting how society can brutalize its own.

17. The brutalization of animals for entertainment is a topic that sparks much debate and outrage.

18. They sought to expose how systemic oppression can brutalize entire populations over generations.

19. Her account of the events revealed just how deeply violence can brutalize the human spirit.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brutalize