

BRUTALLY

Meaning: BRUTALLY: in a harsh, severe, or cruel manner.

1. The storm brutally swept through the coastal town, leaving destruction in its wake.
2. He was brutally honest about her performance, sparing no feelings in his critique.
3. The documentary depicted the brutally harsh realities of life in the war-torn region.
4. She had been brutally betrayed by someone she considered a close friend.
5. The soldier spoke about the brutally intense training they underwent before deployment.
6. Their relationship ended after a brutally heated argument that neither could forget.
7. The film's climax was brutally violent, shocking audiences with its graphic portrayal.
8. He faced brutally cold conditions during his expedition to the Arctic.
9. The competition was brutally fierce, with each athlete pushing their limits to win.
10. Her fall from grace was brutally public, leaving her to navigate the aftermath alone.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/brutally>