

BUBONIC

Meaning: Bubonic refers to a severe infectious disease caused by the bacterium Yersinia pestis, characterized by swollen lymph nodes and historically associated with the plague.

1. The bubonic plague swept through Europe in the 14th century, causing widespread devastation.
2. Medical records from the Middle Ages detail various cases of bubonic infections.
3. Symptoms of bubonic plague often included painful swollen lymph nodes known as buboes.
4. The term "bubonic" is derived from the Greek word for "groin," referring to where some of the swellings occur.
5. Historians have studied the impact of the bubonic plague on medieval society extensively.
6. Bubonic plague is caused by the bacterium Yersinia pestis, which can be transmitted by fleas.
7. In modern times, bubonic plague has been largely contained through improved sanitation and medical care.
8. The bubonic strain is only one of several forms of plague that can affect humans and animals.
9. Outbreaks of bubonic plague still occur in certain regions, prompting public health responses.
10. Literature from the era often reflects the fear and chaos that accompanied bubonic outbreaks.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bubonic>