

BUCK-EYED

Meaning: Buck-eyed refers to having a wide-eyed, startled, or surprised appearance, often characterized by an intense or penetrating gaze.

1. The old man had a buck-eyed stare that seemed to see right through you.
2. Her buck-eyed expression made it clear that she was surprised by the news.
3. He wore a buck-eyed look as he pondered the difficult decision ahead.
4. The child had a playful, buck-eyed glance that lit up the entire room.
5. With his buck-eyed gaze, he could easily charm anyone he met.
6. She noticed his buck-eyed demeanor as he listened intently to the storyteller.
7. The photo captured her buck-eyed wonder as she experienced the festival for the first time.
8. His buck-eyed appearance gave him an innocent charm that made people trust him.
9. The buck-eyed look in her eyes hinted at her adventurous spirit.
10. He wore a buck-eyed expression, full of curiosity, as he explored the new city.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/buck-eyed>