

BUFFIN

Meaning: Buffin (noun): A knowledgeable or enthusiastic person, particularly in a specific field or area of interest.

1. The old buffin in the bookshop always had the best recommendations for rare novels.
2. She's such a buffin when it comes to historical trivia; she knows everything about ancient civilizations.
3. I never expected that a buffin like him would have such a great sense of humor.
4. The buffin at the museum could explain even the most complicated art pieces in simple terms.
5. After spending an hour with the buffin, I felt like I had learned a lifetime's worth of knowledge.
6. Her friends often teased her for being a buffin, but they appreciated her insights during discussions.
7. During the debate, he came off as a buffin, impressing everyone with his well-researched arguments.
8. I love hanging out with that buffin; his passion for science is contagious.
9. The classroom was filled with buffins who debated the merits of different philosophical theories.
10. Despite being a buffin, she never looked down on others for not sharing her level of enthusiasm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/buffin>