

BUFFLE

Meaning: Baffle (verb): To confuse or bewilder someone, often by unexpected or deceptive means.

1. The sudden change in the weather seemed to baffle the hikers, leaving them unprepared for the storm.
 2. He always tried to baffle his opponent in debates, using clever tactics to confuse them.
 3. The magician's tricks were designed to baffle the audience, leaving them in awe of his skills.
 4. As the speaker began to stutter, the tension in the room only seemed to baffle the atmosphere even more.
 5. Her elaborate explanation did little to baffle the questions that continued to arise from the crowd.
 6. The complexity of the instructions seemed to baffle everyone involved in the project.
 7. In an attempt to baffle the critics, the artist showcased her most daring work yet.
 8. The unexpected twists in the plot served to baffle the readers until the very last page.
 9. His sudden change of plans seemed to baffle his friends, who were left wondering what had happened.
 10. Trying to baffle his emotions, he put on a brave face despite feeling overwhelmed inside.
 11. The sudden noise seemed to baffle everyone in the room.
 12. Her complex explanation only served to baffle the students further.
 13. He was baffled by the unexpected turn of events.
 14. The magician's trick left the audience in a state of baffle.
 15. Despite his best efforts, he couldn't help but feel baffled by her reaction.
 16. The intricate puzzle continued to baffle players for hours.
 17. She looked baffled when asked a question she didn't understand.
 18. His inability to articulate his thoughts led to a baffle in the conversation.
 19. Even the expert was momentarily baffled by the difficult problem.
 20. The conflicting information seemed to baffle the entire team.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/buffle>