

BUGLER

Meaning: A bugler is a musician who plays a bugle, typically to signal events or ceremonies, often in military or ceremonial contexts.

1. The bugler stood at the edge of the parade, ready to signal the start of the ceremony.
2. As the sun began to set, the bugler played a haunting melody that echoed through the valley.
3. In the military, a skilled bugler can convey messages across long distances without the need for radio.
4. The bugler's call marked the end of the day, prompting soldiers to return to their barracks.
5. A talented bugler can transform a simple tune into a powerful anthem that resonates with the crowd.
6. During the memorial service, the bugler played "Taps," leaving many in tears.
7. She dreamed of becoming a professional bugler, inspired by the music of her grandfather's army days.
8. The bugler's notes soared above the crowd, capturing the attention of everyone present.
9. At the annual festival, a bugler entertained the audience with a vibrant display of traditional tunes.
10. In the midst of the chaos, the bugler's steady rhythm brought a sense of calm to the assembled crowd.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bugler>