

BULBEL

Meaning: Bulbel: a small bulbous growth or shoot that can develop into a plant, particularly in gardening contexts.

1. The gardener was delighted to find a bulbel sprouting in the newly planted bed.
2. After a few weeks, the bulbel grew into a vibrant flower, attracting bees and butterflies.
3. She carefully divided the bulbel to propagate more plants in her greenhouse.
4. The unique texture of the bulbel made it a fascinating subject for her botanical illustrations.
5. In the wild, some animals use the nutrients stored in the bulbel as a food source during winter.
6. He explained how the bulbel serves as an underground storage organ for many flowering plants.
7. To ensure healthy growth, it's important to plant the bulbel at a depth that allows for proper drainage.
8. With the right conditions, a single bulbel can produce a cluster of stunning blooms.
9. The horticulturist recommended watering the bulbel only when the soil is dry to the touch.
10. She was amazed at how quickly the bulbel transformed into a lush green plant after a bit of care.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bulbel>