

BULBLET

Meaning: A bulblet is a small bulb that develops from a larger bulb, often capable of growing into a new plant.

1. The gardener discovered a small bulblet nestled among the larger bulbs.
2. Each daffodil bulb can produce several bulblets over the years.
3. After careful planting, the bulblets began to sprout in early spring.
4. She decided to separate the bulblets from the parent plant to encourage growth.
5. The bulblet's delicate roots were carefully untangled from the soil.
6. In the wild, some plants propagate through tiny bulblets that form at their base.
7. The florist recommended using bulblets for a fuller arrangement of flowers.
8. A single bulblet can eventually grow into a thriving new plant.
9. He was excited to see the bulblets bloom in his garden after a few months.
10. The bulblet's unique characteristics caught the attention of the horticulturist.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bulblet>