

BULLET-PROOF

Meaning: Bullet-proof: capable of resisting or stopping bullets, thereby providing protection against gunfire.

1. The new safety vest is designed to be bullet-proof, ensuring the wearer's protection in high-risk environments.
2. He felt a sense of security knowing he was driving a bullet-proof vehicle through the dangerous neighborhood.
3. The company developed a bullet-proof case for smartphones to prevent damage from drops and impacts.
4. During the training exercise, the soldiers used bullet-proof shields to protect themselves from simulated gunfire.
5. Her bullet-proof argument convinced the committee to approve the project without any objections.
6. In the action movie, the hero survives multiple shootouts thanks to his bullet-proof armor.
7. The architect insisted on using bullet-proof glass in the bank's design to enhance security.
8. While the jacket looks stylish, it is also functional, being both fashionable and bullet-proof.
9. After the incident, he decided to invest in a bullet-proof door for his home for added safety.
10. The police issued bullet-proof helmets to officers deployed in high-tension situations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bullet-proof>