

BULLFACED

Meaning: BULLFACED (adjective): having a bold, confident demeanor or presence that commands attention.

1. The bullfaced man walked confidently into the room, drawing everyone's attention.
2. Her bullfaced determination in the face of adversity inspired her colleagues.
3. Despite the bullfaced criticism from the media, he stood by his decision.
4. The bullfaced challenge presented by the project excited the team.
5. With a bullfaced attitude, she tackled the problem head-on, refusing to back down.
6. His bullfaced approach to negotiations often surprised his opponents.
7. The bullfaced dog charged at the intruder, protecting its territory fiercely.
8. She gave a bullfaced smile, masking her true feelings beneath a veneer of confidence.
9. He took a bullfaced stance on the issue, unwilling to compromise his principles.
10. The bullfaced demeanor of the speaker captivated the audience throughout the lecture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bullfaced>