

BULLIST

Meaning: A bullist is a person who strongly supports or advocates for a particular cause or group, often in a political or social context.

1. The bullist advocated for the rights of the working class during the protest.
2. In the debate, the bullist argued passionately for environmental reforms.
3. Her bullist approach to politics often alienated more moderate party members.
4. The bullist's speeches were filled with fervor and a call for change.
5. He was known as a bullist among his peers, always pushing for bold policies.
6. The classroom buzzed with excitement as the bullist shared his vision for the future.
7. Critics labeled him a bullist, suggesting he was too extreme in his views.
8. The bullist rallied supporters with a compelling vision of social justice.
9. She embraced her role as a bullist, determined to challenge the status quo.
10. The conference featured a prominent bullist known for his radical ideas.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bullist>