

BUMP

Meaning: BUMP (noun): a raised area or irregularity on a surface, often caused by an obstruction or a physical condition.

1. I felt a sudden bump in the road as we drove over the pothole.
2. She noticed a small bump on her arm and decided to get it checked by a doctor.
3. The children giggled as they played, bouncing a ball that often hit the wall with a loud bump.
4. He accidentally bumped into his neighbor while carrying groceries.
5. The car hit a bump and tossed its passengers slightly in their seats.
6. During the hike, we encountered a bump in the trail that made the climb more challenging.
7. She gave the door a gentle bump to get it to close properly.
8. The unexpected bump in sales this quarter surprised the entire marketing team.
9. He felt a small bump of excitement as he waited for his turn to perform.
10. They were startled by a bump in the night, unsure of what had caused it.
11. She felt a sudden bump in the road as she drove over the pothole.
12. The child accidentally bumped into his friend while running to the playground.
13. There was a noticeable bump on the surface of the water as the fish jumped.
14. She had a small bump on her forehead from where she hit the door frame.
15. The company experienced a significant bump in sales after the new product launch.
16. He could hear a bump in the night that made him uneasy.
17. The car made a loud bump when it drove over the speed bump.
18. After the concert, the crowd began to bump together in excitement.
19. The map showed a bump in the terrain, indicating a steep incline ahead.
20. She gave the door a gentle bump to close it more securely.
21. She felt a sudden bump as the car hit the pothole.
22. The toddler giggled after bumping her head on the table.

23. We encountered a bump in the road that slowed our progress.
24. He decided to bump up the volume on the stereo for the party.
25. After a bump in the stock market, investors were feeling optimistic again.
26. The cyclist swerved to avoid a bump in the path and nearly lost balance.
27. You could hear a bump coming from the back of the house.
28. His plans hit a bump when he couldn't secure the necessary funding.
29. They celebrated their first year together with a bump of champagne.
30. The software update was supposed to bump the performance of the app.
31. The toddler giggled as he made a slight bump with his toy truck.
32. He stumbled and got a small bump on his forehead from hitting the table.
33. I noticed a bump on the surface of the water where the fish had jumped.
34. The unexpected bump in the stock market took everyone by surprise.
35. With each bump in the trail, the hiker adjusted his backpack for comfort.
36. They celebrated their victory with a bump of their fists in the air.
37. The car's suspension absorbed the bump, making the ride smoother.
38. A bump in the ceiling indicated that something was wrong above.
39. She gave the door a gentle bump with her shoulder to open it.
40. I felt a small bump in the road as I drove my car.
41. She had a noticeable bump on her forehead after the fall.
42. The children giggled as they played, bumping into each other.
43. He decided to bump up his workout routine to get fit for summer.
44. The package arrived with a bump on one corner, but it was still intact.
45. They heard a loud bump in the night and wondered what it was.
46. She plans to bump the meeting up to next week for efficiency.
47. The balloon started to deflate with a slow bump as it hit the sharp edge.
48. I need to bump into town to grab some groceries later.

49. The two friends shared a warm hug that ended with a gentle bump of their shoulders.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bump>