BUNGLER

Meaning: Bungler: a person who makes mistakes or performs clumsily, often resulting in confusion or mishaps.

1. The bumbler at the office always manages to mix up important documents.
2. Despite his good intentions, his reputation as a bungler often precedes him.
3. She tried to help, but her clumsiness made her look like a bungler instead.
4. In the kitchen, he proved to be a bungler, burning the toast and overcooking the eggs.
5. The bungler's mistakes in the presentation cost the team a crucial contract.
6. Even the simplest tasks seemed to elude the bungler's grasp.
7. Everyone knew him as a bungler, but they appreciated his cheerful demeanor.
8. Her latest project was a disaster, showcasing her skills as a bungler.
9. The bungler's antics often led to humorous situations that lightened the mood.
10. In sports, a bungler can turn a winning play into a losing moment in seconds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bungler