BUNK

Meaning: BUNK (noun): A type of bed that is stacked on top of another, or nonsense or foolishness.

1. The kids were excited to sleep in their new bunk beds.
2. He dismissed the idea as complete bunk and moved on.
3. After hours of hiking, they finally reached the bunkhouse by the lake.
4. She couldn't believe the bunk story he had concocted to avoid trouble.
5. The camp counselor instructed everyone to store their gear under the bunk.
6. That theory about the missing treasure is just a bunch of bunk.
7. They found a cozy spot in the bunk to share their secrets.
8. His explanations were nothing but bunk; I couldn't take him seriously.
9. The old wooden bunk creaked under the weight of the sleeping bag.
10. She enjoyed the camaraderie of sharing a bunk with her best friend.
11. The story he told was nothing but a load of bunk.
12. She decided to sleep on the top bunk of the bed for the first time.
13. His claims about the product were pure bunk and misleading.
14. After a long day, I could hardly wait to climb into my bunk and rest.
15. The teacher dismissed his excuses as mere bunk and insisted on discipline.
16. They set up their bunks in the cabin before heading out for the hike.
17. She was tired of listening to his bunk about conspiracy theories.
18. The old military bunk was filled with memories of training and camaraderie.
19. He tried to convince me that his plan would work, but I thought it was bunk.
20. In the cozy cabin, the bunks were stacked neatly, ready for the campers.