

BUREAU

Meaning: BUREAU: A government or organizational office that provides specific services, or a piece of furniture with drawers for storing items.

1. The travel bureau helped us plan our dream vacation to Europe.
2. Her office was cluttered with papers piled high on her desk and an old wooden bureau in the corner.
3. After the meeting, the director requested a report from the finance bureau for further review.
4. He discovered a hidden compartment in the antique bureau that contained old letters.
5. The local government bureau announced new regulations for small businesses this week.
6. She opened the bureau drawer and found a collection of vintage postcards from different countries.
7. The national park service operates a bureau that focuses on wildlife conservation efforts.
8. We visited the art bureau to see the latest installations by emerging artists.
9. The travel bureau offered a variety of packages for both luxury and budget travelers.
10. A dusty bureau stood against the wall, a relic from the previous owners of the house.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bureau>