

BURGLARIOUSLY

Meaning: BURGLARIOUSLY: in a manner relating to or involving burglary; unlawfully entering a property with the intent to commit a crime.

1. The suspect was apprehended after entering the house burglariously.
2. They were charged with burglariously breaking into several homes in the neighborhood.
3. The jury found him guilty of acting burglariously during the late-night heist.
4. The police discovered evidence that indicated the premises had been entered burglariously.
5. Her fear of being burglariously attacked kept her up at night.
6. Neighbors reported unusual noises that suggested someone was moving burglariously around their properties.
7. The security system was installed to deter anyone who might act burglariously.
8. He described the incident as a burglariously executed plan that went awry.
9. The detective noted that the thief had burglariously cut the window screen to gain entry.
10. She was shocked to learn that her house had been accessed burglariously while she was away.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/burglariously>