

BURH

Meaning: Burh: a fortified structure or settlement, often used as a refuge during conflicts, particularly in Anglo-Saxon England.

1. The ancient burh served as a fortified refuge during times of conflict.
2. Archaeologists uncovered remnants of a burh that date back to the 9th century.
3. In medieval England, many towns were established around a burh for protection.
4. The burh was strategically located on a hill, offering a vantage point against invaders.
5. Travelers often sought shelter within the burh's sturdy walls during storms.
6. Local legends spoke of a hidden treasure buried beneath the old burh.
7. The design of the burh reflected the military strategies of its time.
8. Surrounding the burh, a deep trench was dug to deter attackers.
9. Residents of the burh celebrated festivals that honored their ancestors' bravery.
10. Visitors to the historical site marveled at the well-preserved structure of the burh.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/burh>