

BURLER

Meaning: BURLER: A worker in the textile industry who prepares and processes fibers, particularly by removing impurities and aligning them for spinning.

1. The burlers in the textile factory worked tirelessly to prepare the wool for spinning.
2. As a skilled burler, she transformed coarse fibers into smooth, usable yarn.
3. The burlers showcased their technique at the crafts fair, demonstrating the art of fiber manipulation.
4. He learned the trade of a burler from his father, who had been in the profession for decades.
5. In the old mill, the burlers used traditional methods that had been passed down through generations.
6. Her experience as a burler allowed her to create intricate patterns that captivated buyers.
7. The burlers often collaborated with dyers to produce vibrant, colorful textiles.
8. As a burler, attention to detail was essential for achieving the perfect finish.
9. The burlers gathered every evening to share tips and showcase their latest creations.
10. In the competitive market, the burlers who adapted to modern technologies thrived.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/burler>