

BURLESQUER

Meaning: A burlesquer is a performer, typically in a theatrical context, who uses humor, exaggeration, and sensuality to entertain an audience, often through dance or striptease.

1. The burlesquer captivated the audience with her extravagant performance.
2. He admired the burlesquer's ability to blend humor with sensuality.
3. As a burlesquer, she embraced the art of tease and satire.
4. The burlesquer took the stage in a dazzling costume that sparkled under the lights.
5. She studied the classics of burlesque to refine her own unique style as a burlesquer.
6. The burlesquer's routine was a clever commentary on societal norms.
7. With each act, the burlesquer pushed the boundaries of traditional performance.
8. The burlesquer's charm and wit kept the crowd roaring with laughter.
9. During the festival, the burlesquer showcased her talent alongside other performers.
10. Many consider the burlesquer's performances a celebration of body positivity and self-expression.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/burlesquer>