

BURSAR

Meaning: BURSAR: A financial officer in an educational institution responsible for managing accounts and overseeing tuition and other financial matters.

1. The bursar managed the university's financial accounts with great diligence.
2. Students were advised to contact the bursar for any issues related to tuition payments.
3. After a long meeting, the bursar presented a detailed budget proposal to the board.
4. The bursar's office is located next to the admissions department for convenience.
5. She often consulted the bursar when planning events that required funding.
6. The bursar explained the scholarship process during the financial aid orientation.
7. He was known for his transparency and integrity as the school's bursar.
8. During the audit, the bursar provided all necessary documentation without delay.
9. The bursar's role is crucial in maintaining the institution's financial health.
10. After the merger, the new bursar implemented several cost-saving measures.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bursar>