

BURSIFORM

Meaning: BURSIFORM: having a pouch-like or sac-like shape, often associated with storage or protective functions.

1. The bursiform structure of the plant helped it store water during the dry season.
2. In anatomy, the bursiform shape of certain sacs can indicate specific functions or conditions.
3. The bursiform nature of the joint allowed for greater flexibility and movement.
4. After careful examination, the doctor noted the bursiform swelling around the patient's knee.
5. The artist captured the bursiform form of the sculpture to emphasize its organic qualities.
6. Researchers discovered that the bursiform adaptation in the species aided in its survival.
7. Her bursiform design for the modern chair was both functional and aesthetically pleasing.
8. The bursiform characteristics of the mushroom made it easily identifiable in the wild.
9. During the dissection, the bursiform tissues were highlighted for their unique properties.
10. The bursiform growths on the tree were a sign of a possible infection or disease.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bursiform>